111 Places in Newcastle That You Shouldn't Miss

Shop in style in the Central Arcade. Discover a secret World War II bunker. Go behind the scenes in a Victorian theatre. Drink in a pub once owned by a colourful sea captain. And meet the cows on the Town Moor.

Hidden Nooks, Unknown Trails and Oddities

Newcastle is England's most northerly city, and shares a long history with Gateshead, its neighbour on the south side of the River Tyne. The two, city and town respectively, are a heady mix of the old and new; both were industrial powerhouses during the 19th century that have successfully embraced recent change, reinventing themselves as vibrant places of entertainment and culture.

Experience the less explored pockets of this iconic cities through the eyes and words of an enamoured local. Join David Taylor, as he leads you away from the more famed attractions sharing entertaining insights, cultural anecdotes, and insider tips in combination with stunning photographs.

No matter whether you have lived in Newcastle and Gateshead all of your life, are a frequent visitor or a first-time visitor, these are 111 things you might not have realised even existed. This book will help you explore the quirkier side of both Newcastle and Gateshead, and discover their hidden gems.

David Taylor was born in Newcastle and is a professional freelance landscape photographer and writer who now lives in Northumberland. David has written nearly 40 books about photography, as well as supplying images and articles to both regional and national magazines. When David is not outdoors he can be found at home with his wife, a cat, and a worryingly large number of tripods.
